By the court

Hon'ble Irshad Hussain J.

Heard Sri Vivek Shukla learned counsel for the applicant and learned A.G.A.

The applicant-accused is involved in a double murder case and he has been assigned the role by use of tabal, a sharp edged weapon, injury of which was found on the head of one of the deceased. The applicant-accused has been arraigned along with other accused and the allegation constitute an offence of murder with the aid of section 149 IPC and considering the allegation about the common object of unlawful assembly and the role assigned to the accused-applicant, it is not a fit case for bail. The bail application is rejected.
